CONSTITUTION FACTS

The Pennsylvania State House (where the Constitutional Convention took place) was where George Washington was appointed the commander of the Continental Army in 1775 and where the Declaration of Independence was signed in 1776. It was also where the Articles of Confederation were adopted as our first constitution in 1781.

HONOR FLIGHT UPSTATE SC
Applications are currently being accepted for the October 2027 flight. Specific flight date to be announced. Applications may be completed online or obtained from the Spartanburg County Veterans Affairs Office.
